- SB 5268: Unlawful possession of a firearm (Wagoner)
- SB 5317: Compliance between local governments and the Energy Facility Site Evaluation Council (Boehnke)
- SB 5358: Expanding technical education to the 6th grade (Braun)

- SB 5371: Removes the restriction on 24-litre per transaction limit on alcohol sales to retailers (MacEwen)
- SB 5399: Requires LCB to make decisions on liquor license applications within 45 days; 30-day extension with good cause (Schoesler)
- SB 5408: Allows employers 14-day window to cure errors related to a job posting before a lawsuit (King)
- SB 5499: Recodifying the highly effective body scanner program at a handful of facilities operated by the Department of Corrections. (Christian)
- SB 5672: Improving the home-care aide certification process (Muzzall)

Bad

- HB 1217: Rent Control -- Freezing development of new rental units, ultimately driving rents higher as demand outstrips supply. (Alvarado)
- SB 5375: Requiring clergy to break their clerical vows of confidentiality and be excommunicated from their churches by making them be mandatory reporters of abuse they learn of in confession. (Frame)
- SB 5038: Clarifying a hate crime to be an act committed “in whole or in part” because of someone’s perception of another’s protected status (e.g. – race, color, religion) (Dhingra)
- SB 5041: Unemployment insurance for striking workers (Riccelli)
- SB 5062: Sets up a 10-person board to set standards for all childcare working conditions, including minimum wage (Saldana)
- SB 5083: Reference-based pricing (Robinson)
- SB 5098: Restricting the possession of weapons on the premises of state or local public buildings (Valdez)
- SB 5133: Sentencing mitigating circumstance for primary caregivers (Wilson, C.)
- SB 5181: Parents’ rights -- medical notification (Wilson, C.)
- SB 5254: Trial lawyer access to patient medical records (Orwall)
- SB 5284: Extended producer responsibility in solid waste management (Lovelett)
- SB 5296: Revising sentencing for juvenile offenses. (Wilson, C.)
 - Creating a new court standard for certain types of offenses that requires a court make an additional finding that commitment to DCYF is necessary for public safety before a person can be sent to juvenile rehabilitation.
 - Establishing a midpoint sentence review based on the above. If a youth is not shown to be a threat to public safety, they can be released.
 - Allowing people with pending criminal charges while at DCYF to be moved to the community.
 - Expanding access to nearly every sentencing alternative for juveniles.

- SB 5375: Requiring clergy to break their clerical vows of confidentiality and be excommunicated from their churches by making them be mandatory reporters of abuse they learn of in confession. (Frame)
- SB 5387: Corporate practice of medicine (Robinson)
- SB 5423: Right to repair electronics (Stanford)

- SB 5557: Abortion bill (Krishnadasan)
- SB 5583: 38% increase in hunting and fishing license fees (Lias)
- SB 5589: OIC study of insurers use of credit history, credit-based insurance scores, and other “rate factors that may have disparate impacts on Washington residents.” Way too broad, no insurance industry input, not an independent study, and bill’s language presupposes an outcome. (Hasegawa)
- SB 5636: Wage replace/unemployment insurance for undocumented workers (Saldana)
- SB 5708: Places extensive requirements on websites and apps “likely to be accessed by minors.” Proponents say this is going after addictive social media sites. But who could be brought to court, and how to meet the bill’s requirements, is extremely vague. Similar California bill is under injunction in the 9th Circuit. (Frame)
